Description: The Khaki Field Murph Auto 38mm is here. One of the science fiction's most famous watches known by fans as 'The Murph' is now housed in a compact 38mm stainless steel case. Featuring ultra-readable black dial, beige vintage-style Super-LumiNova® finished hands and black leather strap, it reflects the key aesthetic codes of its 42mm predecessor. Powered by the H-10 automatic movement boasting an 80-hour power reserve, this Khaki Field Murph Auto will capture the hearts of those who are in love with smaller watches.

Repayment period: 40 days
